A Letter from Pastor Marr

Newsletter - October 2008

"That mortality might be swallowed up of life." - I Corinthians 5:5

My dear friend in Christ Jesus:

In his letter, Bob has presented a great opportunity to help lead your friends and relatives to the Christ of Christmas. Please read it and act on it today.

My tiny message on heaven may urge you on to put eternity first at this coming Christmas season and all the year ahead.

I'm actually excited about going to heaven ASAP. Why not? To say I'll be better off is to incredibly understate it.

In the meantime let us exchange greetings and prayers, and continue to trust and serve our Lord and King with all He enables.

Right now, I'm praying most earnestly every day that our needs will be fully met through God's good caring people. Will you please join me?

"All things work together for good To them that love God, To them who are the called According to His purpose." - Romans 8:28

Lovingly in Christ Jesus,
Our Lord and soon-coming King,

Pastor Marr

Proclaiming Christ Jesus All Sufficient Always in All Things to All Men Everywhere

Far Better! ...

If you get a phone call telling you had a relative who knows the lord just "passed away," if you joyously say, "Praise the lord," what kind of response would you expect to get?

Dead silence. Then, "What?!?"

. . . Even if the person has been released from years of pain and distress? . . . Even if their care givers were released from a life of great self-sacrifice and difficulty?

Generally, we've been brainwashed and poured into the world's mold.

Of course, if they don't know Christ as their personal Savior, your response would be anything but appropriate. . . And if the deceased person was leaving behind others to grieve, especially those who need them such as minor children.

Likewise, try telling people that you're anxious to go home to be with the lord and trade in pain and sorrow of all kinds for eternal bliss. Right away some will label you depressed, even suicidal. A wacco!

It could well be argued that the waccos are those who don't have enough sense to want to trade in present pain and sorrow for eternal bliss. We need to get as straight as Paul was on this whole matter.

It's time for the church to preach again the everlasting joys of heaven, the eternal suffering of hell, and personal responsibility to God.

God is the beginning and end. We are to put Him first in all things. We are to be His ambassadors offering eternal life to all. Unabashedly longing to be with Him in eternal bliss is a great way to point them to Him.

To God be All the Glory! He Alone is Worthy!

A Little Early For Christmas, Isn't It?

"And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins." - Matthew 1:21

Dear Friend of ChristLife,

YES, it is a little early for Christmas.

NO, it is NOT too early!

I have a very good reason for writing to you about Christmas this early in the season.

My reason is the possible SALVATION of your family and friends!

What am I talking about? Well, last year Pastor Marr came up with a very simple idea that was used powerfully by God. God used this idea to bring some people to Jesus Christ. Thus, we wanted to continue with it again this year.

So, what is this idea? Christmas Card Inserts! We have produced very simple Gospel message cards that will fit conveniently into your Christmas cards!

Our prayer is that you will take these Gospel inserts and stuff them into all of your Christmas cards that will be sent to unsaved family and friends.

I have included a copy of the text from the front and back of these cards below. Please take a moment to read over these inserts and pray about how God might want you to use them. Please write us and let us know if you would like us to send you some of these inserts. As the Lord provides, we want to make available as many of these as you believe you can use in your Christmas cards.

Unfortunately, our finances will not permit us to mail these out internationally. At this time, we can only provide these within the United States.

Christmas is a very "religious" time of the year. People are often more "open" to the things of God.

Let us seize this opportunity to share the Truth of Jesus Christ with them!

Begin praying right now for those on your Christmas list who need to know Jesus.

These inserts contain the Gospel of Jesus Christ and it is the gospel that is the power of God unto salvation. Let us send some POWER this year with your Christmas cards!

Love in Christ Jesus,
Robert (Bob) Dallmann
