REAL Revival.. A Call to REAL Prayer!

Newsletter - May, 2009

ChristLife.inc@gmail.com

"For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, Whose name is Holy, I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to REVIVE the spirit of the HUMBLE, and to REVIVE the heart of the CONTRITE ones." - Isaiah 57:15

Dear Friend of ChristLife,

You will notice this month that Pastor Marr's letter is missing. He needs your prayers. Pastor Marr is currently not doing well in regards to his health. He has been admitted into a nursing home, where he will be able to get the care that he needs. Please pray that our Lord Jesus Christ will glorify His Name in the life and health of Pastor Marr.

As we considered what message to include with this mailing, one of our board members handed me the enclosed message about "The Great Welsh Revival". I almost immediately thought to myself, "That is the right message for this month."

Pastor Marr has spent more than 50 years praying for revival and teaching truths that are capable of leading us into revival, if we will only heed them. Revival... how appropriate I Revival... Why can't we HAVE it NOW? I honestly can think of only ONE reason why I do not experience personal revival", and that reason is ME!!!

The Bible says that God has given us EVERYTHING that pertains to life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3). God has given us His Son (John 3:16). God has given us His Holy Spirit (Acts 2). God has given us access to the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:16). What is it that He has withheld from us? What prevents us from being a part of another REAL Revival?

ME!!! I am the problem (at least for me). I don't pray like I honestly believe that God wants His people revived MORE than I do. I don't truly have faith to believe that He will fully and completely take care of me and my family. I don't preach the Gospel to others absolutely confident that IT IS the POWER of God unto salvation. Lord forgive my unbelief!

Please read the enclosed message and let it encourage your heart for revival. Here are the four things that Evan Roberts (God used him to help start this revival) taught from the onset of his ministry.

1. Confess ALL known sin.
2. Get rid of ANYTHING DOUBTFUL in your life.
3. Be ready to OBEY the Holy Spirit in your life.
4. Confess Christ PUBLICLY.

Please join us in prayer for revival. I believe that God WANTS IT MORE THAN WE DO and is still looking for people who are willing to be used by Him to lead the next revival.

Love in Christ Jesus,
Robert (Bob) Dallmann

* Before I got locked up I was going to college and I heard my pastor's lessons but I never put it to use. But now God is calling me. So if you have anything that could help me on my walk with God that would be great! J.A., TX

* Please lift me and my wife before the throne of grace that God would draw us under His feet and grow us spiritually and strengthen our faith and trust in Him in all circumstances and put a desire in our hearts to read and hear His word and to live for Him. J.J., NV

* I was just reading your wonderful message, "When All Else Fails"; that the goal is trusting Jesus no matter what. Isn't that the truth! I want you to know that I think that I am finally "getting it." e-mail from P.M.

* Thank you for the encouraging words. I have been asking God for a promotion for a long time thinking that it would make me happy, make things easier for me in terms of finances. I know and am convinced that promotion is from the Lord, as the Bible puts it. I know that He will do it when the right time comes. I read your article "God Is Enough" and I can now boldly say. He is enough for me. Every time I read it, things become much more clear. e-mail from H.T., Zimbabwe

* I am presently incarcerated. I am 'so' hungry for a Christianity that really works. Please send me your book. W.C., Chino. CA

* When I receive your message, I rejoice and I get a wonderful spiritual message. By this reason I continue to read your messages. May God bless you. Your brother from Ethiopia

* I just received an email from you stating that you are going to send me postal mailings and am very excited about this. My husband recently came to Christ while we were separated but he also went to jail and may be serving a lengthy sentence. Could you send him these postal mailings also as he needs as much literature as he can get to read to help him stay strong and get stronger in Christ while he is there. Thank you in advance if you are able to do this. e-mail from S.H.

* Please pray for my daughter and her husband for employment. They have been out of work for months and owe on their home. Oriando, FL

* Just a word to say that you are in my prayers and with each new message that I receive from ChristLife it seems that they come just in time to encourage, lift my spirit, and remind me that I am not the only one with problems and struggles. May God be with you and bless you. Thank you. e-mail from L. L.

* I send your letters and messages to my daughter. She reads and passes them on. So you see dear pastor, your letters do go elsewhere. A.C.,NY

The Great Welsh Revival

From the middle of the 18th century to the middle of the 19th, Wales experienced some 15 major revivals with many other smaller ones, resulting in it being called the land of revivals.

The last great revival of this period was in 1859. During the rest of the 19th century there was much local religious activity. Many wondered when the next major move of the Spirit would break forth. Then God began to call on some of His people to seek Him in hours of prayer specially to call on Him for revival.

During 1904-05 thousands of meetings were held. Evan Roberts alone held 200. Many of them lasted till 3 a.m.

It was reported that 100,000 sinners sought Christ in Wales alone. And it spread sporadically to the rest of the British Isles, the United States, France, Turkey, India, and many other countries.

From the first meeting with his home church youth group in September 1904, Evan called on everyone to:

- 1) confess all known sin,
- 2) get rid of anything doubtful in your life,
- 3) Be ready to obey the Holy Spirit in your life,
- 4) Confess Christ publicly.

As a result, it was reported that pubs were empty, swearing virtually disappeared, work in the mines began with prayer, judges had scarcely any cases to try, football games were canceled, clubs disbanded, and churches were open for prayer day and night.

The Salvation Army set apart January 19th, 1905 for a day of confession, humiliation, and prayer throughout Britain. All day prayer meetings were held in many of the principal cities. Fires of spiritual revival and moral recovery were already spreading.

For years ministers and laymen had met in groups to pray for revival.

Seth Joshua, a leading Bible teacher, spent 4 hours a day asking God to raise up someone to present revival truths.

Evan Roberts had already prayed for 13 years for the Holy Spirit to control him. Now he determined to read and speak often about revival. He began spending 7 hours in prayer and Bible study daily.

The Welsh Revival was not an orgy of emotion but an outpouring of spiritual fervor, bringing a whole nation to its knees at the foot of the cross in adoration and praise.

Only God can bring such revival.

Only God can raise up the necessary leaders. Only God can raise up the needed prayer warriors. Will you let Him use you?
