A Letter from Pastor Marr

Newsletter - September, 2009

ChristLife.inc@gmail.com

Dear Loved One in Christ,

If God is all loving and all powerful- Why does he allow people to suffer? Especially when these people are trying so hard to love and please him no matter how poorly.

"The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory. I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us."

Romans 6:16-18 NIV

Unfortunately, God is often working with non-pliable people. Their human nature rebels against God releasing their will at every point again and again. My present circumstances show me this constantly. To some it can demonstrate how hopeless my own personal plight might be. Though both physically and emotionally drained, I must not allow myself to emphasize this point. Rather I must focus on the will and work of God in me even in this place at this point of my life. I must be willing to let God be God. It might not make much sense to us poor sinners but it is God's way. The end of us is the beginning of God.

God has the unique ability to encourage us in our time of suffering. Since my time in my new home I have had new opportunities to share my faith. Just the other day I learned how a woman is finding some blessing with my book, A Christianity That Really Works. One day I was able to strike up a conversation with her while she was visiting a loved one and was able to give her a copy. It is also encouraging to learn others find comfort when then learn that I am a pastor.

Praise God for his wonderful work. Please pray for those that live with me in this manor as well as the staff that serve us. There are many needs here.

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

Galatians 2:20 NIV

Your help in prayer and support in every way is greatly appreciated.

Love in Christ,
Pastor Marr

How I Became a Part of ChristLife

"I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." (Psalms 138:2)

Dear Friend of ChristLife,

This month, the message selected from Pastor Marr's writings is "Throw God's Word Away If You Dare!!" This message focuses on the VITAL importance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We MUST proclaim the TRUTH! As always, please read Pastor Marr's message very prayerfully. This is God's heart cry!

While wrestling to prepare my letter this month, I sensed that I should keep it simple. The thought came to me, that I should testify of how the Lord led me to become involved in ChristLife. I pray that you find this helpful.

Meeting Pastor Marr

In December of 1983, I surrendered my terrible life to Jesus and accepted Him as my Lord and Savior. Prior to that, my life was a wicked mess of sinfulness. PRAISE Jesus for His cleansing power!

After my salvation, friends invited me to attend their wedding. It was the first "Christian" wedding I had ever been invited to attend. The bride was Pastor Marr's daughter.

I did not know Pastor Marr at that time nor did we become acquainted then. We simply met each other. Somehow, I obtained some of his tracts and teachings and I remember thinking, "Wow, he has some awesome insights into God's Word!"

About 20 years later, I found myself attending the same church as Pastor Marr. He and I were part of the same Bible Study class. Apparently Pastor Marr saw something in me that he liked (I trust it was the Spirit of God!) One Sunday after the service was dismissed; Pastor Marr tapped me on the shoulder and asked if I could speak with him. We spoke at length and the end result was that he asked if I would prayerfully consider assisting with the outreaches of ChristLife, Inc. I am very busy, so I told him that I would pray about it. Obviously, we both believed that God was leading me to help (since I am writing to you now.)

Touching the World

I have been working with this ministry for four or five years now and I love it! I am so blessed and excited by the opportunities to reach the world for Jesus. (We reach into more than 120 countries via ChristLife.)

- I am blessed to be able to share our life in Jesus with each of you. I have had a few chances to speak with some of you and I have enjoyed those opportunities.
- I am blessed by the ChristLife team. The people of God involved in this ministry are true servants.
- I am so blessed to be accepted by God! Thank YOU Jesus!
- I am blessed to be able to share the Gospel with others through ChristLife.
- I am blessed and encouraged by the prayer support and gifts of friends like you.

Love in Christ Jesus,

Throw God's Word Away If You Dare!

By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin. So eternal death passed upon all because all have sinned, fallen short of God's perfect standard.

All are condemned under His Wrath and judgment. Yes the wages of sin is eternal death... but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

And, those of us who have been given eternal life and reconciled to God have been called to be God's Ambassadors to those still dead in trespasses and sins.

Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men. We call to all: "Be reconciled to God."

-Compiled from Holy Scripture, Romans 5 & II Corinthians 5

I'm broken hearted that most of the people in the entire world are bound for eternal punishment in an eternal hell...

And they don't know it!!

Everyone seems virtually silent about it.

This breaks the heart of the One Who took the awful punishment we all deserved on Himself, dying for us so we might be freed from our sin ... and given a perfect home in an eternally happy heaven.

The devil and all his demons, on the other hand, are perfectly gleeful at such silence and the prospect of so many joining him in the lake of fire eternally.

How can Christians in general and preachers specifically, be silent on the most important truth ever encountered by the human mind??? How can they?

So what if people don't want to hear that they're hell bound? So what if we don't understand how a God of love can consign even "good" people who've never received Jesus as their Savior to eternal punishment.

Truth doesn't change because people don't like it or understand it.

"I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ" How could I be? Not only is it true, "it is the power of God unto salvation" from sin and eternal punishment "to all who believe" on the Lord Jesus Christ.

The house is on fire. You're inside...
Or you're outside while others are in...
In either case only one message matters:

THE HOUSE IS ON FIRE. GET OUT!!

Jesus Christ - the King of kings and Lord of lords!
